Foreword

Pirates swarmed the English channel in the 17th century. Two hundred and fifty years later pirates of a different nature swarmed the Southwestern campus.

In presenting the 1945 Sou'wester the staff has endeavored to show life of the "pirates" at Southwestern. This is not a history but just a sketch of school life to revive pleasant experiences whenever you open the pages of this book of memory.

Medication

In appreciation for her excellent understanding for her friendly and helpful counsel, for her definite interest in all our activities, and for her watchful eye during our sickness, we dedicate the 1942 Sou'wester to Sarah M. Wright, known to the students as "Grandma" - in tribute to and recognition of her invaluable aid throughout the year.

THE SOUTHWESTERN MAGAZINE is a monthly publication composed of the literary efforts of the students and ex-students of this campus. In it may be found poems, short stories, articles, regular columns, and cartoons. An active and working staff put their heads together to ponder and eventually decide on the best contributions to produce this magazine of the campus.

The pride and joy of Southwestern is its outstanding newspaper, the MEGAPHONE, which represents within its pages each week the events of note that occur on the campus and elsewhere. The staff has worked hard in getting the low-down on various campus activities and selecting choice and original material for each edition. The MEGAPHONE affords an outlet for all persons interested in journalistic work.

Student Christian Association

The purpose of the Student Christian Association is the promotion of a well rounded program of religious activities on the campus of Southwestern University, and the opening of vistas to all for individual growth through fellowship, worship, and service.

Throughout the year the Association has sponsored prominent speakers, worship services, weekly vespers, and recreation in the form of brush burnings, picnics, carnivals. Each semester the cabinet holds a retreat at which plans are made for the following period. These include such undertakings as the painting of a house, Christmas caroling, community singing, assembly programs, and interracial discussions.

Southwestern started out the season by running the score up to 32-6 over the Galveston Army Air Field. The next week the Pirates went to Louisiana to beat Louisiana Tech 26-0 at Ruston.

At a muddy night game, the Pirates won again. This time the opponent, John Tarleton, lost 19-0.

DOWN: Westkaemper, Taylor, George, McFarland.

There was a penalty on this play of the S. M. U. game which Southwestern lost by a small margin. The score was 15-16. The Pirates went on a winning spree for the next three consecutive games. The score against N. T. A. C. was 39-7; Texas Tech lost 21-19; while Southwestern beat S. P. A. A. F. 21-6.

DOWN: Croker, Hill, Chase, Oreschnigg.

Overpowered by stronger teams, S. U. lost to Tulsa University 6-51. The following week the Randolph Field Ramblers rolled over Southwestern 0-54. Pictured below is a play from the Rice game which the Owls beat us 7-18.

On January 1, 1945, the Southwestern Pirates successfully defended the Sun Bowl championship against the contestants, the University of Mexico Pumas. The Pirates made an impressive win over the outweighed, outgamed Pumas by a score of 35-0.

The game was held in El Paso at the Kidd Stadium on New Year's Day. The Pirates set two precedents: that of making the highest score ever made in the Sun Bowl and of being the first repeating champion to play there.

The Pirates began the basketball season by bowing before Texas, Camp Bowie, and Blackland Army Air Field. Putting up a grueling fight, the Pirates came out the victors over Kelly Field by the close margin of 55-53. Losing again, this time to McCloskey, the S. U. five then began a winning spree. Bergstrom, S. M. A. A. F., and Kelly Field became the victims of the South-western cagers.

The game against McCloskey became another loss to the Pirates' books. This completed their basketball season in which they made a remarkable recovery from the first games' disappointments.

Salibo was named in the Blackland Army Air Field's All-Opponent Team.

The day after the Aggie game, the Pirates journeyed to Austin to be beaten by Texas, 20-5. Three games in succession proved too much for the Pirates. The first four innings looked hopeful; but Ulrey's arm tired and Allen, less experienced, couldn't hold back the Longhorns.

Seemingly in a rut, the Pirates lost the next game to San Marcos Army Air Field by the sum of 12 to Southwestern's 1.

Rabb, running capless, is put out at first.

Blodzinski catching.

Starting the baseball season for the Pirates was the opener with the Aggies. Southpaw Ward Cox held the Aggies to six hits and three runs to allow a win by the Pirates of 4 to 3.

The Aggies return engagement here resulted in our defeat of 9 to 2. Ulrey pitched and Allen replaced him in the 7th inning.

The following day the Pirates made a spectacular win. In the last half of the 9th inning, the score stood 3-1, Aggie's favor! After letting 3 pass for balls, Frank Means hit 13 fouls before knocking one over the right field fence. The final score was 4-3.

A game with Texas was rained out, but Southwestern's prospects did not look too good.

A decisive 13 to 7 win was obtained by the Pirates in a game with McClosky.

Again the SMAAF ex-professionals vanquished the scrappy Pirates 9 to 1.

As this goes to press, the season has not yet been completed with three more games slated.
